IMPORTANT EXPANSION AT KEFLAVIK AIRPORT

Bjarni Benediktsson, Minister of Finance and Economic Affairs, brakes ground for the new 20,000-square-metre addition to the Leif Eiríksson Air Terminal at Keflavík Airport. Construction work on the building is starting, and it is estimated that it will be ready for use in 2024. The estimated total cost is ISK 20.8bn. The project is an important milestone in the development plan of the airport. Customer services will improve, and the airport's capacity will increase.
